

“Peak oil will affect more people in more places in more ways than anything else in the history of the world.”

Walter Yongquist, Professor Emeritus of Geology, University of Oregon

Nether Edge

Common Ground Community Centre, Machon Bank (entrance on Woodstock Rd) S7 1GR

The Century of the Self Mon 23rd Mar, 8pm

Tells the story of Freud's nephew, Edward Bernays who, using Freud's ideas, showed US corporations how they could make people want things they didn't need by systematically linking mass produced goods to their unconscious desires.

Plus some short films on consumerism.

The Recession Mon 20th April, 8pm

A short film on peak oil followed by a talk and slide show looking at the failing economy, it's causes, and it's prospects for recovery.

What a Way to Go Sun 10th May, 1.30pm

Disturbing, compassionate, sometimes humorous... comes to grips with climate change, resource crises, environmental meltdown and the demise of the American lifestyle. Analyzes historical, social and psychological factors driving us toward collapse. A must see.

“...there simply is no question that the risks here are beyond anything that any of us have ever dealt with, and the risks to our economies and our civilization are enormous.”

Robert L. Hirsch, coauthor of the report to the U.S. Department of Energy: Peaking of World Oil Production

Meersbrook

*Meersbrook Pavillion,
Meersbrook Park, Meersbrook Park Rd S8 9FN*

Money as Debt Wed 18th Mar, 7.30pm

Why does the economy always have to grow? A fast-paced and highly entertaining animated feature explaining today's magically perverse debt-money system in terms that are easy to understand.

Petroapocalypse Now Wed 15th April, 7.30pm

A great and concise intro to the subject of peak oil and one of the few UK documentaries on the subject.

Short Films Wed 13th May, 7.30pm

An evening of short films focusing on peak oil, climate change & what you can do to survive the coming crises.

For more info & trailers see the Transition Sheffield web site:

www.transitionsheffield.org.uk/events